Best avocado dish in Australia

AFTER more than a month of taste testing and sampling, a Brisbane cafe has won Australia's Best Avo Toast competition.

Little Hideout Cafe owner and chef Manish Shrestha, said he was shocked and overjoyed to win the nationwide competition.

The cafe, based in Balmoral, was one of 10 finalists, which ultimately won with Mr Shrestha's "Seasonal Avocado" dish. The proud chef said he had been curating avocado dishes since he opened the cafe in 2016, but the "Seasonal Avocado" was so popular he'd kept it on the menu for the past two years.

The winning dish features a generous amount of sliced fresh avocado on top of a slice of "Wild Grains" sourdough, served with roast tomato aioli, piped balls of fetta and thin slices of radish.

Mr Shrestha said among other secret ingredients, he topped off the dish with sprinkles of homemade dukka.

Even though Little Hideout Cafe won the best Avocado on Toast competition Mr Shrestha said he won't be raising the price from $16.90.

"I want to encourage everyone to come down and try the dish," Mr Shrestha said.
